Course Outline
SAP ECC6.0 Overview

Introduction

This Course gives an overview about SAP main modules, versions, and most used Business Processes. Also it will teach you how to navigate in SAP menu and perform the basic functions like submitting a transaction, viewing and Printing Reports

Audience

- Project Team Members involved in organizing and planning an SAP implementation
- Any SAP beginner interested in acquiring a basic overview of SAP solutions

Outcome

After Successful implementation of this course you will be able to:

- Explain the terminology used by SAP
- Provide an overview of SAP's business solutions
- Learn the basics of the SAP system with hands-on exercises
- Learn how to navigate, search, and get help in SAP
- Learn how to run and print reports
- Overview of the various modules in SAP
- Work with master data, post transactions and run reports

Pre-requisites

Duration	Pre-requisites
20 hours	Graduates, Skilled persons,

Course Content

SAP Training Program - Overview	What is ERP , SAP company History, SAP ERP, SAP Products Portfolio and SAP Certification overview
Navigation	- How to start the SAP program; - How to log on and off - How to identify screen elements - How to Use Help Functions - How to recognize screen elements.
System wide Concepts	- State the purpose of an organizational element in the SAP system - Explain the purpose of master data in the SAP system - Explain the purpose of transactions - Explain the use of IDES
Procurement Cycle	- Outline the tasks associated within the procurement cycle - Explain how SAP within ERP supports the key processes in Procurement.

Financials	• Outline the tasks associated within Financial Accounting and Management Accounting • Explain how SAP within ERP Financial supports the key processes in Financial Accounting and Management Accounting
Human Capital Management	• Outline the tasks associated within the enterprise asset management • Explain how SAP within ERP supports the key processes in enterprise asset management
Analytics and Strategic Planning	• Outline the tasks associated with basic reporting, advanced analytics, and strategic planning • Explain how SAP within Business Suite supports reporting, analytics, and strategic planning
Workshop	• Practical and hands on practice